Approved For Release 2004/10/28 CHA RDE88186314R000300180069-9 . 4 . .

U.S. Diplomat Zorthian Defects to Journalism

Barry Zorthian, U.S. mission Henry Cabot Lodge, Gen. spokesman in Salgon who Maxwell D. Taylor and Ellswaged a usually friendly worth Bunker. counter-insurgency war with ministration's credibility gap ment to journalism.

Although Zorthian would presenting the U.S. mission in not comment on the report, it the best light he could. was learned yesterday that he ice after 20 years to take a after his Saigon service, but management post with Time began considering a variety of magazine.

The 47-year-old Zorthian had been reported earlier as going to either the Fletcher School of Diplomacy at Tufts University or the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Zorthian has held a variety of posts with the U.S. Information Agency and the Voice of America. But it was in Salgon from early 1964 that the Armemian-born Zorthian won his greatest prominence spokesman for ambassadors

In Vietnam where the Adnewsmen there for 52 months, yawned to its widest, Zorthian has defected from the Govern was credited by most newsmen with consummate skill in Zorthian is known to have would soon leave Federal sery. Wanted an ambassadorial post other offers when none became available.